

November 2015

Dear Parent/carer

Are you interested in training to become a primary or secondary school teacher?

Our school is part of a growing number of schools leading the way for more school-led teacher training and we recently launched the Teach Wimbledon consortium which is made up of primary and secondary schools in Merton currently offering teacher training via the Schools Direct Programme.

We have vacancies now to start training from September 2016 in primary and secondary and applications are open on www.ucas.com/ucas/teacher-training. We would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential.

If you would like further details please contact Ms Taylor, Deputy Headteacher, who is leading on the secondary programme and can be contacted on 020 8946 2208 or by email, annabelle.taylor@ricardslodge.merton.sch.uk or Ms Collette Farley, who leads on the primary places and can be contacted at collette.farley@ursulinehigh.merton.sch.uk.

For further information on what becoming a teacher might involve more generally, you can also visit www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching or for further details on vacancies in Teach Wimbledon please visit www.teachwimbledon.com.

Yours sincerely

Mrs A Jerrard
Headteacher
