

RR6 students gain amazing scholarship opportunity

Two RR6 students have gained a five year scholarship with Herbert Smith Freehills LLP. There are only five places offered annually and it is a testament to both the students and the school that two students have been successful.

Herbert Smith Freehills is a leading, full service, international law firm with over 2,800 lawyers (including 460 partners) and a network of offices in Asia Pacific, Europe, the Middle East and US.

The programme offers 5 students 5 years of experience, mentoring, networking and financial support with two aims; firstly to equip students with a range of skills which are essential to a career in business and the second to create and broaden the students' network of professionals across the business world.

The students will have the following opportunities:

- A 3 week internship at the firm after their exams in Year 13 - including a business trip to Paris
- A mentor to guide and support them
- Access to professionals across the legal and business world including Goldman Sachs, USB, RBS, Financial Times, B SkyB
- Insight into different industry sectors and contact with clients
- Training and development workshops to develop professional skills needed for a future career in business
- A £1000 annual bursary towards living expenses and university for 3 years
